OPENING OCEANS

A NOR-SHIPPING CONFERENCE

Opening Oceans – a Nor-Shipping Conference

Opening Oceans Conference 2018 in Copenhagen is a new initiative from Nor-Shipping to help maritime industry players realise the unique business potential of the ocean space.

This is a crucial event for all business leaders to understand the potential of the markets, the innovation required and the strategic alliances and investment that exist.

Preliminary programme & confirmed speakers: Openingoceans.com

Co-located with the Danish Maritime Fair.

The conference is coinciding with the Danish Maritime Days and co-located with the Danish Maritime Fair in Copenhagen. This is the first time in Nor-Shipping's 53-year history, Nor-Shipping goes out of Norway. The choice to go to Denmark is logical, as our two shipping nations have close business ties.
